

12th Annual Florence Nightingale Challenge

We can be the CHANGE we want to see in our community!

In the spirit of Florence Nightingale, a celebrated social reformer, we invite community businesses to make a difference for the most vulnerable among us. Manna on Main Street, a non-profit charitable organization, serves the community through our food pantry, soup kitchen, education services, and emergency financial aid and referrals. Through your support, we hope to eliminate hunger in the North Penn region. Whether you raise $10 or $10,000, your contribution makes a difference for so many of our neighbors.

Here's how you can get started:

- Say “YES, I want to be a Challenge Champion for Manna!” Sign up by Thursday May 18, 2018 so that you are included in the feature listing in The Reporter, our media sponsor (complete the attached participation form.)
- The Reporter will highlight this Challenge with a feature May ad and story for the program launch. Individual fundraisers will also be spotlighted through print and/or online promotion throughout the year.
- This Challenge is year-round, from June 1 – April 30, 2019, so you have almost a full year to hold your fundraiser. (Please let us know if you would like a representative to attend your event. We would welcome the opportunity to lend our support and share our mission with your employees.)
- You get back what you put in: be creative! Ask colleagues, employees or customers for fundraiser ideas. Have fun brainstorming! Why not assign an employee to spearhead your fundraiser to become a Challenge Champion?
- Manna will announce Challenge winners at the closing awards ceremony in late April 2019.
